

Teddy 1

Antique American
Bear

Instructions

This bear is a quilt pattern made using fusible appliqué or fake fur. Please understand full process before beginning.

Quick summary: trace background, trace templates, cut pieces, appliqué in order, embroider details.

Materials

8.5 x 11 pale gold fur or fabric
 Scraps dark gold fur or fabric
 Scraps black fabric (optional, for nose, or you can embroider)
 Black embroidery floss
 Brown embroidery floss (optional, for eyes, or you can use safety eyes)
 Dark gold embroidery floss

Step-by-step instructions

1. Trace placement guide (next page) on background fabric. This is used to place the appliqué pieces.
2. Photocopy templates if desired.
3. Cut out all templates.

Fur (if using fabric, skip to #12)

4. Trace templates on back of fur following nap arrows. Note: templates are reversed for fur appliqué.
5. Cut out fur appliqué pieces on lines.
6. Trim fur down to backing around edges, being careful not to cut backing.
7. Using the lines drawn onto the background fabric as a guide, place fur onto background fabric.
8. Edge appliqué by machine.
9. Where appliqué pieces overlap (e.g. snout area), trim fur down to backing on the bottom piece of fur.
10. Using 6 strands of embroidery floss, embroider paw and foot claw marks, ear accents, and mouth.
11. Nose can be appliquéd or embroidered.

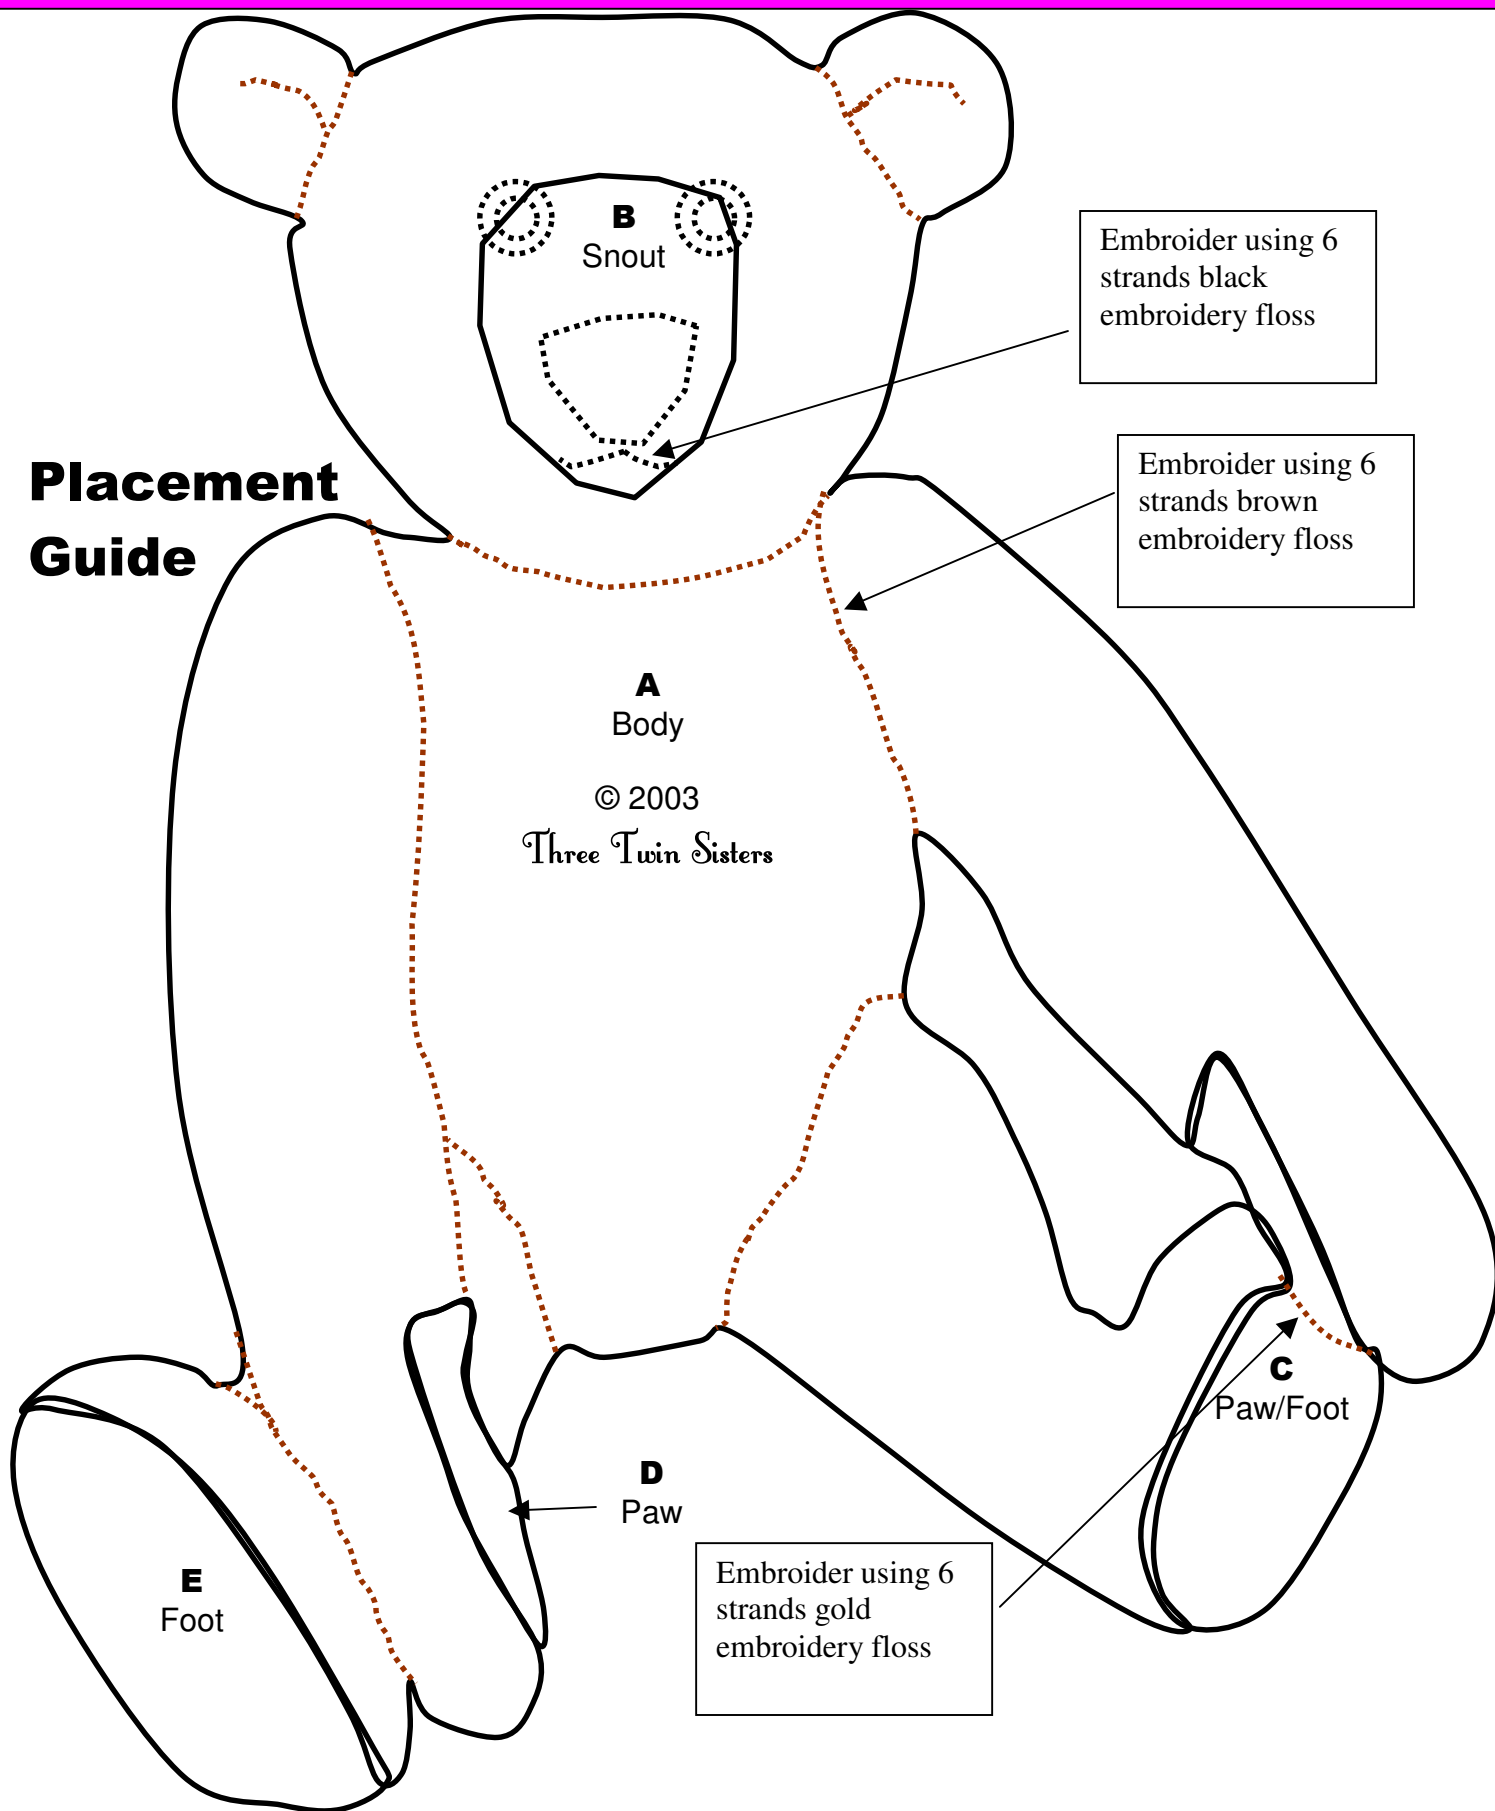

Fabric (if using fur, go back to #4)

12. Trace templates on paper side of fusible paper (e.g. "Heat and Bond™"). Note: templates are reversed for fusible appliqué.
13. Cut out fusible pieces 1/8 around markings.
14. Iron onto wrong side of fabric following manufacturer's instructions.
15. Cut out fabric pieces along lines.
16. Remove paper backing.
17. Using the lines drawn onto the background fabric as a guide, place fabric onto background fabric, layering the pieces so they look like the finished pattern.
18. Edge appliqué by machine.
19. Using 6 strands of embroidery floss, embroider paw and foot claw marks, ear accents, and mouth.
20. Nose can be appliquéd or embroidered.

Note: you can also use this pattern for regular appliqué. Simply photocopy the templates in reverse and add a seam allowance around all templates.
